<tr>
<td>Write out (on PPT slide or board): ¿Cuáles son los beneficios de tener un trabajo para un adolescente?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Guided Practice (45 minutes)

- Introduce the vocabulary in Así se dice 3 by doing some Q&A with the words.
- Students revisit their list of benefits and add one or two from the vocabulary list.
- Students choose the benefit from their list that they think is the most important and then try to convince their partner that their benefit is more important than their partners’ (Paso 1a & 1b).
- Each group will share the benefit that they decided was most important with the class. A classmate (or teacher) will keep a running list of the benefits on a piece of poster paper or on the board (Paso 1c).
- Show the students the video, ¡Los beneficios! (Paso 2) three times:
  1. Watch and listen for any of the benefits that were mentioned and on the class list.
  2. Watch and listen for the five benefits mentioned and write them down (Paso 2b).
  3. Watch and listen again to finish getting all five or to check your list.
- Students compare their list with a partner to make sure their lists are complete and correct (Paso 2c).
- Students read descriptions of benefits of working and then label each description on the PDF with the name of the benefit (Paso 3a) and then they add one more idea for each benefit (Paso 3b).
- When most students have completed the activity, go over the five benefits and students turn in.

MATERIALS (CONTINUED)

Prepare questions using the vocabulary: ¿Te apetece más trabajar después de escuela o los fines de semana? ¿Quién en la clase es apto para trabajar en una tienda de ropa elegante? ¿En una tienda de deportes? etc.

- Large piece of poster paper and a marker

- Video on Learning Site: Actividad 3 Paso 2 ¡Los beneficios! (pág. 233)

- PDF on Learning Site: Actividad 3 Paso 3: ¿Qué más? (pág. 233)

Independent Practice (10 minutes)
- Form concentric circles (inner/outer circles) in which students will talk with their partner for two minutes about one benefit of having a job as a teenager. Every two minutes they will switch partners and should try to talk about a different benefit (perhaps the one their partner just mentioned).

Closure (5 minutes)
- To continue the conversation on benefits of working as a teenager and how it can impact their future, students will have an online chat about how having a job now can help them in the future. They will also need to comment on a classmate’s post in the chat, as well.
